CONNELLVILLE, PA., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 24, 1907.

PRICE, ONE CENT.

TO REVISE FIRE ORDINANCE AND ELECT SOME NEW FIREMEN.

Regular Session of Council Last Evening Was Long Drawn Out and Was Characterized by Gingery Debate.

TWO ORDINANCES ARE VETOED.

One Provides for the Paving of East Cedar Avenue—Street Petitioners Come in for Discussion—Vote Necessary on Bond Issue of $100,000.

The Fire Department was not organized at Friday evening's meeting of Town Council as was intended because Clair Stillwagon, former President, blocked it for the present at least by calling attention to an ordinance now in force relative to the organization of the Fire Department. Nothing along the lines suggested by President George Porter can be done until this ordinance has been repealed or amended. It is the purpose of President Porter, as Chairman of the Public Safety Department, to do away with the three volunteer companies of 15 men each and employ six paid firemen. These men will be expected to look after the downtown district. Association grounds and the South Side. The plan is to be looked after by a volunteer company of five reliable men. These plans were announced by President Porter.

Acting on this suggestion, Councilman J. W. Huston placed in nomination J. W. Mitchell as Chief, Arch Holiday, Carl Bishop, Harry Franks and Wall McConick as firemen. This only made five. Councilman Friel, placed Thomas Mullin in nomination. Clair Stillwagon nominated Logan, Mills, Rev. Huston included in his nomination that the Chief receive $35 a month and the firemen $50.

Councilman William McCormick, a veteran and successful fire-fighter himself, was stirred to make an impassioned speech at what he termed the attempt of the new Councilmen to lay Logan Mills off the force.

Clair Stillwagon then called attention to the Fire Department ordinance which was read. It was clearly shown that Council, as long as this ordinance is effective, has no right to increase salaries or appoint a chief. It also shows that Anthony King is acting head of the Fire Department and that the three volunteer companies cannot be discharged.

As Fire-Policeman J. A. Love had previously been elected as regular policeman, Councilman Friel nominated Thomas Mullin. Mullin was elected. The Fire Department ordinance was referred to the Ordinance Committee for amendment and this will be taken up at the next meeting.

A petition presented by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and Boys, Porter & Company for the paving of North Water street from the end of the present paved street north a distance of 150 feet, started another parley. Friel and Millard suggested that these companies should pave the street at their own expense as they keep it blocked with cars most of the time. Councilman McCormick declared the borough should do this paving as the Baltimore & Ohio railroad is ready to go ahead with the paving of its freight yard here. Councilman Frank Friel led the opposition to the movement. A vote was taken. Doin McCormick and Stillwagon voted in favor of paving the street. Friel, Huston, Girard and Millard voted against it while President Porter didn't vote. The motion was lost. The petition was referred to the Street Committee.

The millage for this year was set. Chairman Huston of the Finance Committee reported on the matter. The millage is as follows: General fund, 8 mills; sinking fund, 1 1/2 mills; Special Sinking fund for the purpose of paying off floating indebtedness, 1 mill; Sewer fund, 2 1/2 mills; Library fund, under condition that the accounts of the Library be submitted to the Borough Auditors, 3/4 mill. Clair Stillwagon objected to the special sinking fund being kept at least one and a half mills. Chairman Huston said that Borough Treasurer Butler had assured him that one mill would be sufficient. Borough Solicitor Brown stated that one mill is not sufficient to pay the interest on the floating debt but Huston maintained that matter was positive that one mill would be sufficient. The millage went through as above. The valuation of the borough is $3,652,855, against $3,622,115 for last year, an increase of $30,740.

The entire report of the Borough Auditors was read by Clerk R. W. Solon. After this was over, Friel objected because none of the borough's property is represented. Solicitor W. H. Brown explained that borough property cannot be estimated as an asset for the

BOUGHT LUMBER TRACT.

A Deal for 1,500 Acres on Cheat River Closed Yesterday.

Westmoreland and Fayette men are interested in the Senator Lumber Company, which yesterday closed a deal for 1,500 acres of timber land on the Cheat river district. This is located near Kingswood, four miles from the new extension of the M. & K. railroad.

A trolley will be used to bring the lumber to the railroad. This is the second big venture by the Senator Company. They are developing 3,200 acres of timber in the Bluefield district in West Virginia.

OTTO HAD BAD CHECK.

Scottdale Man Tried to Pass One for $500 on Greensburg Man.

PICKED UP BY LOCAL POLICE.

Prisoner Remains His Position in Borough Lockup and Will Likely Enter a Plea of Guilty—Gives No Reasons for His Actions.

After repeated efforts to cash a check for $500 bearing the signature of D. W. Boyce, a prominent hardware dealer of Greensburg, Frank W. Otto is in the toils. Otto claims Scottsdale as his home and says he is the only supporter of his sister. He was placed under arrest by Officer Howard Anderson Thursday afternoon who had been notified of his alleged machinations, after every bank in town had been visited. The check was payable to the assumed name under which Otto was traveling. Information against him was made before Judge Frank Miller by Chief of Police Raythold Rutter and a hearing will likely be held sometime today.

Otto was interviewed this morning by Burgess A. D. Solson, a police court. From his actions there appear to be grounds that the man is mentally unbalanced. His story was told in a rambling, incoherent manner, interspersed with woolly declarations that the act is much regretted and was never contemplated until after he came here Thursday.

The prisoner said he worked in the pipe mill at Scottdale but, after much persuasion, he agreed to sell lots from a plot in East Scottdale. Even in making this plain statement, Otto protested that he didn't sell the lots or close the deal, but merely brought buyer and seller together. He seemed afraid that everything he ever did or had done would get him into deeper trouble.

Otto was especially anxious to secure bail for a few days to straighten out his business affairs. It is quite likely that he will enter a plea of guilty, for he does not deny the offense.

He failed to get the check cashed for the amount was so large that it aroused the suspicion of the bank employees. After visiting all the institutions and banks being the last place he was in before being apprehended by Officer Anderson.

The officers are generally of the opinion that Otto is not right, mentally, and it is very likely that the condition of his mind will be subjected to examination. He only sold two or three lots he said. Worry over financial difficulties was the reason Otto gave Burgess Solson for his rash act of writing a check and signing another man's name to it.

FIFTIETH BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. William Knight Gives Six O'clock Dinner for Friends.

Mrs. William Knight of Vanderbilt entertained a number of friends at her home at Vanderbilt yesterday. The occasion was her fiftieth birthday. At a 12 o'clock dinner Mrs. Knight had the following guests: Mrs. R. E. Munter and daughters, Mary, Veronica and Henrietta; Mrs. Oscar Shoemaker and daughter Edna; Mrs. H. N. Stillwagon and Mrs. J. N. Cartwright, the latter of Dunbar.

PAID MATTER.

VAN'S PAIR OF ORGANS.

Why the Herald and the Genius Are Opposing Reppert

COOPER AND VAN OWN THEM

The Old Democratic Organ Refused to Insert Paid Matter for Reppert When He Was Running Against Cooper.

Criticism to have any aim must be based on character. A man without character who presumes a critic's others might as well say his mind. Nobody will pay any attention to him. He hasn't had the proper foundation to enable him to comment on or against anybody or anything.

What is true of individuals in this regard is true also of newspapers. Newspaper criticism, to be of any account, must be based on character, on integrity, on sincerity of purpose, on a praiseworthy desire to help along the general good. There must be no hypocrisy, such as is the evident inspiring quality of the Evening Genius and the Morning Herald in their futile efforts to injure the political prospects of Judge Reppert, a man who stands so high in public esteem in this county that the paper pellets fired at him from the popguns named are about as effective as a directed against the walls of a jail cell.

One of the reasons of this ineffective device, aside from their own inherent weakness, is due to the general and no doubt accurate belief that the Fayette Publishing Company, which prints The Genius and The Herald, belongs to Hon. A. F. Cooper and J. C. Van Swearingen, and that they bought the one and started the other for the express purpose of furthering the candidacy of Mr. Van Swearingen for Judge of this county. As yet The Genius has not been a hostile to Judge Reppert as The Herald has been, but one has only to wait awhile to see both hard at work at the same point.

The Genius has been, rather than been, the loyal Democratic organ of this county. It would hardly do therefore for the Republicans to buy it and turn it over bodily at once as an enemy of one Republican and a friend of another Republican candidate for Judge. So the temporary expedient was resorted to of using The Genius plant to start a morning villain, with imported talent from the city of Pittsburgh to edit it and let The Genius itself to come in on the home stretch, a second edition.

Now the shameful hypocrisy of the situation lies in the buying and handling of Democratic papers by and in behalf of Mr. Van Swearingen for the purpose of injuring, if possible, the candidacy of Judge Reppert. These articles really have no detrimental effect? We do not believe it does and it would not be here noticed but for the fact that it is such a monumental display of hypocrisy and moral dishonesty, and the whole thing should be laid bare to the public.

That The Genius ceased to be a Democratic paper so far as Congress was concerned, was apparent last fall soon after it had passed to its present ownership and to the management of the Napoleons now guiding its destiny. This abandonment of De-

IS IT CROW OR COOPER?

The Former Accused of Being a Friend of Penrose, but

COOPER DINED THE SENATOR

Shortly After the Harrisburg Convention, That, Senator J. V. Thompson for Governor.

Congressman Cooper's Morning Herald, Unionist, and likewise his Evening Genius, both for a concerted purpose, express a latent hostility to Senator Penrose. This is strange. Who is closer to Senator Penrose than A. F. Cooper? And who intends to stay closer than he?

Mr. Cooper is anxious for a fourth term in Congress, and is most solicitous in his own behalf that he shall keep in line with Penrose in the hope that, when it shall come to getting needed help in the future in Greene and Somerset counties, Penrose may do all he can or will for him. In view of this, of course, isn't it the height of hypocrisy that Cooper's two papers, one bogus Democratic and the other Villager, should try to deceive the Republicans of this county in such a matter as Mr. Cooper's own real attitude toward Penrose? Who was it that within a short time after the defeat of Mr. Thompson last June at Harrisburg gave a dinner in Washington City to Senator Penrose? Why, it was Congressman Cooper himself. Nobody was invited from Fayette county to that dinner, and not much more than was ever printed, but it came so soon after the Harrisburg Convention that among the insiders at Washington the impression has been ever since that it was nothing more than a nice quiet little justification over the way Mr. Thompson got "the throw-down" at Harrisburg. Mr. Cooper ought to train his newspaper watch dogs to either bark honestly or not bark at all.

What his Senator Penrose got to do, anyhow, with the judiciary contest in this county? Why do the Cooper and Van Swearingen barkers, the Genius and Herald, continually lug Penrose into an affair with which he has no more to do than the German Kaiser? If Cooper and Van Swearingen don't like Judge Reppert, why don't their papers come out and say so and give their reasons? Stop beating the devil around the stump. Penrose hasn't anything to do with the scrap now on and doesn't want anything to do with it. So let him alone and come down to the real thing, and if Judge Reppert is not a good man, and has not served the people satisfactorily, let Cooper and Van Swearingen's papers come out and say so, and produce their proofs. These men are lawyers, or pretend to be, and if they expect to do any business before the Court of Public Opinion they will have to do it in the right way.

THE FACULTY OF LYING.

J. V. Thompson has said in effect that the Uniontown Herald is a liar. Mr. Thompson recognizes a liar as quickly as Teddy does, and is just as prompt to point him out when the necessary arises. The lying in his case was in the recent printing of a statement by The Herald to the effect that Mr. Thompson had come to Harrisburg to assist his influence for the passage of the McCord bill; that he had asked Senator Crow to vote for the bill and that Mr. Crow had refused to do so. All of which Mr. Thompson declares is not true.

Mr. Thompson says he was not in Harrisburg when the vote was taken on the McCord bill; that he was not at all interested in it; that he was not at Harrisburg to attend to some private business matters; that Mr. Crow helped him in this business, and that he was successful in the accomplishment of his purpose. He was not concerned in politics.

Did the Morning Herald, after putting Mr. Thompson in a false attitude, straighten the matter out for him when the facts were printed in The News Standard? It did not. The News Standard's papers are in the business of misrepresentation, and they have no intention of departing from the lines laid down for their conduct.

They lie about Mr. Crow; and they lie about Mr. Thompson, and they lie about Judge Reppert, and they lie about Alex. McBeth, and they will lie about anybody else or any other thing that in their furious judgment would contribute to putting Van Swearingen on the bench.

But they are going too far. The thing is reacting. The people will not stand for it.

WHICH SIDE?

The Morning Haze sees in the judicial campaign Barter and Boze Thugs and Intimidation, Perjury and Corruption, Battle and Blood. It is presumably familiar with the campaign plans of one side at least.

THE MASONS ARE UP IN ARMS OVER ALLEGED BOGUS ORDER.

BANK BOOKS PRODUCED.

Show Discrepancies and Interrelations in Enterprise System.

PITTSBURGH, May 21.—(Special.)—At this morning's session of the U. S. Circuit Court trying former Teller E. P. Harvey of the defunct Enterprise National Bank, charged with making false entries and misappropriation of funds of that institution, the greatly desired missing books of the Merchants & Manufacturers Bank were produced and identified. The examination disclosed discrepancies in credits, etc., in Enterprise bank accounts.

PROSECUTIONS MAY BE MADE.

Lodge Said to Have Been Organized in Brownsville and Large Number of Members Were Taken in—Frenchman Is Alleged to be Promoter.

Developments of a startling nature are promised as a consequence of the alleged attempt to organize what prominent Masons in town claim is a fake Masonic body. If the story be true, and it comes from a reliable source, prosecutions under the provisions of a recent Act of Assembly will follow. This Act provides that persons organizing lodges or soliciting membership for lodges bearing a name similar to a fraternal society which has been in existence in the Commonwealth for 10 years or more, or persons who wear an insignia, badge, pin or other emblem resembling that of some order which has been in existence for 10 years or more in the Commonwealth, are subject to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both. The Act is one of the most stringent ever passed by the Legislature but its friends claim that conditions demand it. The bill passed both Houses and has the signature of Governor Stuart.

The Connellsville society uses the initials "F. M." which the legitimate Masons claim stands for "Free Masonry." It is claimed that these alleged impostors promise to give members all the degrees from the first to the 32nd for $25, while in the regular organization it would cost several times that much. They also represent that they are members of the F. M. of the Supreme Council of this State, which is a full-fledged Masons all over the country. The society says that any one who connects himself with such organization is ostracized by all Masonic bodies, even by the negroes.

The chief organizer of the new body is said to be a Frenchman and he has enlisted in his support local professional and business men. A number of young men, not Masons, have been approached and it is said a large number have expressed willingness to join. One of the number questioned a Mason about the matter and this is the way the story leaked out.

All candidates for membership in the order have been notified to meet promptly at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening in a main street office, from which place they will go direct to the hall to be initiated and receive degrees. The written notice does not state the hall but merely says that members will be given the degree of "F. M."

The Frenchman, it is alleged, recently organized a lodge in Brownsville but after collecting the $25 initiation fee he left and has not returned.

BIG DONATION.

Rousing Party Given Rev. J. S. Jewell at Flatwoods by Two Congregations Thursday Night.

FLATWOODS, May 24.—The congregations of the Baptist Churches of Flatwoods and Star Junction gathered in the hall here Thursday evening and tendered Rev. J. S. Jewell, pastor of those institutions, one of the biggest, best and most enthusiastic donation parties ever known around these parts. From Flatwoods came in a hay wagon and didn't mind the rain a bit. A bounteous repast was served and, after speeches were made and an adjournment taken, left Rev. Jewell enough good things to eat for several families. Rev. and Mrs. Jewell fittingly expressed their appreciation for the gifts.

PONY CONTEST JUDGES

They Have Been Selected by the Courier to Make Count.

WINNER WILL SOON BE KNOWN.

It is Expected That All of the Votes Will Be Talled by Monday Evening and Lucky Boy or Girl Will Be Notified at Once.

After today there will only be two more Pony Contest Coupons printed, one Saturday and one Sunday and that will be the last. Don't forget that the Sunday Coupon and that will be the most valuable. Gather all of them you can, because they'll make a big showing in the window. One more day to hustle, Saturday, and that should be a good day for the contestants. Go after your friends and keep going until the last moment. If you don't think you're on the right side and sure to win do a little extra work and be sure of it. It would be hard luck to lose out by a few votes or ballots.

The pony is faster and prettier than ever and who will have the pleasure of owning him next week and driving him about your town is much of an uncertainty. There are a whole lot of people hustling to own the little fellow and his trim little runabout. It will take a whole lot of coupons and ballots to get him but it's no trouble to roll up a long list of subscribers to The Courier. In one day over the hustling contestant can get enough to make an excellent showing for the window. Go out and stay out all day tomorrow and see how much work you can do. The judges who will count the votes and coupons are:

J. H. Aaron, J. Aaron Company.
John Irwin, shoe merchant.
Howard Wagner, novelty goods dealer.

B. J. Shaughnessy, advertising representative, Wright-Metzler Company.
Clarence Hoop, Hoop Hardware Company.

These judges will have absolute control over the count and the result of their work is final. An effort will be made to have the count concluded Monday night in order that the successful contestant may be announced as early as possible.

PENSION BILL.

Old Soldiers Will Present Arguments in Its Favor to Governor Stuart on Wednesday.

HARRISBURG, May 24.—The old soldiers of Pennsylvania who favor the Cochran Pension bill will be accorded a hearing by Governor Stuart next Wednesday. A committee of Harrisburg veterans waited upon the Governor this afternoon and arranged for the hearing. Except in this instance the Governor will give no public hearings on the legislation awaiting his action after this week. He is working 18 hours a day on the bills left him by the Legislature.

The pension bills in danger of the appropriations for public schools and good roads, and if approved for the full amount of $6,000,000, it will be necessary to reduce all other appropriations. The State revenues will not justify the approval of the pension bill and the appropriations for various other purposes. As a result the Governor is expected to veto the pension bill in order that it may not be necessary to cut the appropriation to the public and private charities. The old soldiers will ask the Governor to reduce the appropriations for pensions to $2,000,000, out even this amount would be insufficient to take care of all the veterans entitled to pensions by the terms of the bill.

REGISTERING CHILDREN.

School Statistics Throughout Country Districts Are Being Taken.

The May registration of school children is now being made in most of the districts of the county. Some of the Registrar Assistants are about through with their work while others have only started this week and a very few have not yet received their books.

Most of these, especially in the larger districts, were sent out by the Commissioners early in the month. The registration of the children is regarded as quite important since the State appropriation for each district is based on this return.

BASE BALL

Two games today.
Scottdale dropped two to Butler yesterday. What a jolt for Billy Earle.

Fairmont trimmed Greensburg yesterday.

Two wins today will put us up close to Greensburg this evening if the Westmoreland boys lose.

A meeting is to be held in this office this evening for the purpose of organizing a city League. Those interested in this project are expected to be in attendance. There is every prospect that the league will be organized and present indications are that it will be successful. A six club league has been determined upon, but it looks as though eight may come in line.

The clerks are getting active and will have a team in the field. The types are practicing nearly every evening and they can be depended upon to be represented by a team. At the meeting this evening the rough details will be looked after and an organization effected, if possible.

A movement is on foot in the West Penn to increase the salary limit from $800 to $900. Even $1,000 wouldn't be so bad. A town that can keep an $800 team can do the same with one whose salary limit is $1,000.

The West Penn League is badly in need of a thorough reorganization. At present conditions are not in the best shape. While all teams are going good financially, President Power has as yet been unable to get the executive and straightened up. This is due to ex-President Lawson's lax business methods. Power found everything in bad shape when he came into office and it will take a month or more to get the tangle righted.

The suggestion has been made that the league start anew on Decoration Day, and this scheme looks good. Then the team averages could be started right.

It is reported that Bill Hoffman is to be drafted by a major league club. Hoffman, who captains in the Butler outfield, is a good ball player, but the major league press notices has Law-sonian marks on it.

The South Bend Watch Proves by the Pikes Peak Test

Every jeweler knows that one great cause of watch trouble is vibration. Automobiles, horseback riding and railroad travel will make the average watch run "fast" or "slow," but the test of all tests is the wonderful Cog Railway up Pikes Peak, in Colorado.

No where else in all the world is there such a test as this, where the steep grade of the mountain necessitates the use of cog wheels to force the train up the incline and control its descent, and vibration often so injures ordinary watches that an expert watchmaker must readjust them.

A conductor on the Pikes Peak Road made a ninety-day test of the South Bend Watch last summer.

No adjustment of the watch was made for the whole period, but at the end of the test, examination showed a variation of less than one-half of one second per day. Do you think the watch you carry would stand a test like this?

And because every South Bend Watch is so made and tested as to be accurate under strain that other watches might not meet, is the best watch for you, for ordinary everyday use.

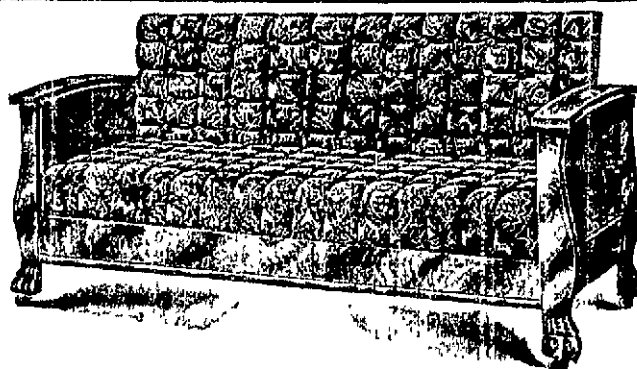

We guarantee them to be satisfactory time-keepers. South Bend Watches are sold only by reliable dealers. They will be pleased to explain to you how a South Bend Watch adjusts itself to every temperature automatically.

THRIFT.

The Old-Fashioned Kind. It is the Keynote of Success.

Simple old-fashioned thrift counts more for success than almost any other quality a man can possess. The man who is thrifty, who spends less than he earns and deposits the surplus in a good bank, is laying the foundation of a comfortable future. The First National Bank of Connelville, with its large resources and strong management, is a safe depository for thrifty people. It allows 4 per cent. compound interest on savings and furnishes little loan safes free to assist its patrons in saving.

RUN OVER BY A TRIP.

Mine Inspector W. J. Mollison, of Scottdale, Fatally Injured at Marguerite.

THE CIRCUS COMES SATURDAY.

The Name of W. L. Main is One to Conjure Crowds With in This Locality—Fire Department Receives New Equipment—Other Notes of the Busy Mill Town.

SCOTSDALE, May 24.—William J. Mollison, formerly a State Mine Inspector, but since February, 1905, employed as a Mine Inspector by the H. C. Frick Coke Company, was the victim of a fatal accident while attending to his duties in the Marguerite mines, on the Sewickley branch, on Thursday afternoon, when he was run over by a trip. From the best information to be secured here during the afternoon he was so injured that he will lose one leg, while other serious injuries befell him about the head. He was brought down the branch and taken to the Westmoreland hospital at Greensburg, where he died last night.

Mr. Mollison was accompanied by the mine foreman and fire boss, but was some distance in advance of them on the main haulage way, when the loaded trip struck him. With all possible haste he was hurried to the hospital. His right leg was crushed to a pulp and was amputated. The leg was broken in several places. He died from shock after the operation.

Mr. Mollison, oddly enough, was injured at the same works where I. C. Kelly, the master mechanic of the company, was so severely scalded some months ago. The news of Mr. Mollison's injury and death came as a great shock to his many friends here. His standing in the mining profession was very high and he only left the service of the State on account of more pay on the part of the Frick Company who greatly desired his services. He resided on the North Side with his family, and he had ever since being in town been a leading member of the Presbyterian church. His wife has been dead for some time. There are five children in the family, Miss Mary, who is a teacher in the Scottdale schools, and Miss Margaret and Thomas, at home. They left on the afternoon train for Greensburg Thursday, and word was sent to William Mollison, who is a student at State College, and to John Mollison, who is a student at the University of West Virginia at Morgantown. They left on Thursday night for Greensburg.

Great sorrow reigned in town at the news of Scottdale's going up against Butler on the ball field on Thursday. Billy's boys will do better, however, and there is much of the season yet ahead. Scottdale is not getting discouraged over the matter. The boys are booked to try conclusions with Fairmont here on Saturday.

Twenty dollars will be awarded to the winner of the debate while the remaining $30 will be distributed equally among the winners of the recitation, essay and oration. The money will be used for the benefit of the society which wins. No admission will be charged and a cordial invitation is extended to all friends and patrons of the public schools.

UP AGAIN

Is That Point Marion Bridge Question Before the County Commissioners Today.

UNIONTOWN, May 24.—Although the County Commissioners would like, perhaps, to talk politics for a day or so and forget the Point Marion bridge, the citizens of that town won't allow it. Another delegation arrived in town this morning and cornered those officials arguing long and earnestly for a bridge across the Cheat. They have figured out that the new structure, instead of being 187 feet longer than the one originally proposed, would in reality be 25 feet and three inches shorter.

There will be nothing new in the matter until the Commissioners hold another meeting and, if Point Marion citizens will permit, this will not come off for a day or so yet.

IL TROVATORE DANCE.

Over 75 Couples Were Present at Markell Hall Last Evening.

Markell hall was the scene of a large and enjoyable dance Thursday evening given by the Il Trovatore Club. Over 75 couples were present including guests from Scottdale, Dawson, Pittsburg, Uniontown, Dunbar and Masontown. The hours were from 8 until 2 o'clock during which time the large auditorium presented a gay and pretty scene. Music was furnished by Kiefer's four piece orchestra. The decorations were carried out in green and white festoonings of which colors adorned the pillars and balcony. Punch was served throughout the evening.

The out of town guests present were Misses Mary and Katherine Monz, Miss Bessie Huston, Misses Edith and Ethel Painter, Miss Belle Fairchild, Roy Henry, Mr. Fields and Jack Lowe of Dawson; Miss Laura Enz New Philadelphia, O.; Matthew Quinn, Foot-dale; J. Smith, Uniontown; I. P. Bates, Frank Barkell, Mr. Smouse and Messrs. HAS REVIVED.

Mrs. McKinley Recovers from Sinking Spell But Her Death Seems Imminent.

CANTON, O., May 24.—[Special.]—Mrs. McKinley's strength is being kept up by heart stimulants. When her heart began to fail yesterday small doses of strychnine were administered and but for this she might not have survived the night. As it is she has continued to gain strength. This morning her heart action seemed stronger and more regular and there are other reasons for encouragement. At no time has Mrs. McKinley's sister, Mrs. L. C. Barber, abandoned all hope of the patient's recovery from this illness.

When Dr. Portmann left the house this morning, he said he recognized an improvement in the patient's condition but did not believe it indicated a possibility of her recovery. "She is now in no immediate danger of death," he said. "Should she continue to improve now she might survive for a week, perhaps even longer. This morning she aroused herself enough to ask for a drink of water and seemed to realize something of what I said to her, but her eyes did not open." A consultation of Drs. Portmann, Eiman and Rixey will be held soon.

SCARED HIM BAD.

Emmett Hoffman Bangs Away at Midnight Marauder Who Yells With Pain and Ruas.

Emmett Hoffman, the fish merchant, had an unpleasant experience at his Porter avenue home Thursday night, shortly before the hour of twelve was striking. Hoffman had removed his outer garments, donned his pajamas and doused the girl, preparatory to retiring for the night, when a shadow in the backyard caught his eye.

Picking up his revolver, Emmett softly crept down stairs and opened the back door. Although the wind didn't feel exactly refreshing at that hour, dressed as he was, the pursuer persisted. "Gettin' within a stone's throw of the man Hoffman demanded that he hold up his hands." The visitor reached behind, evidently going after a gun, and Emmett fired.

With the flash of Hoffman's gun the would be burglar emitted a scream heard for blocks and ran for Arch street, down over the hill and across the railroad tracks. The State Constables were sent for and two responded. They made a search but could find no trace of the visitor.

MISS LEPLY ENTERTAINS.

Members of the New Haven Public School Graduating Class.

The members of the graduating class of the New Haven public schools and several of their friends were delightfully entertained Thursday evening by Miss Lora Lepley at her home on Sixth street, New Haven. Much was the diversion of the evening, for which three tables were called into use.

At the close of the games the prizes were awarded to Miss Anna Brooks and Robert Dunn. About 11 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served. Miss Lepley is a member of the class.

A Connellsville Bride Says "It's Simply Fine."

A Connellsville bride called a few days ago "just out of curiosity" as she said afterward, and talked over our system of selling a whole home outfit on the easy payment plan.

We explained the entire idea to her in nineteen words:—"Select whatever you want from our store and pay for it as you like—a little at a time."

"Why," she exclaimed, "is that all?"

"That is all," we assured her.

"Well, how simply fine," she exclaimed again.

"Yes," we replied, "and how finely simple."

She smiled and went on:—"Mama has always said it was a great thing to pay cash for everything. But, you see, we can't pay cash for we haven't enough to buy a whole home outfit. We have a little in the bank drawing interest but we don't like to disturb it just now.

And can I really pick out what I want and pay a little bit each week or month?"

We assured her she most certainly could.

"And pay no more for it than if I gave you the cash?"

Again, we answered in the affirmative.

"Indeed, then, it is simply fine," she said.

And she made her selections.

Now then, this young lad lived in Connellsville for years but had never been inside the Aaron store before. This surprised us, for we were vain enough to suppose that everybody had called on us at one time or another.

This leads us to ask:—"Are there any others?"

You, for instance, have you never called? Do you know what accommodations we offer you? And how easy we are to get along with? And how anxious and ambitious we are to please? And how careful we will be to retain your trade and friendship?

You young married couples especially—do you know just what we will do toward making you beginning quite easy in the house furnishing line. Won't you come and see for yourself?

And don't confuse us with any other house, will you?

Our methods are different. Our goods are different. Our treatment is different.

We know you'll say, "It's simply fine."

AVOID JURY SERVICE.

Many People Hold Out Strong Opinions in Haywood Case.

ADVERSE TO BEING ACCEPTED.

Judge States That He Will Accept as Excuses Only Those That Clearly Come Within the Statute—Weeding Talesmen Out.

Boise, Idaho, May 24.—The net results of the tenth day of the Haywood trial were the partial weeding out of the talesmen of the second special venire entitled to statutory exemption and the partial qualification of one juror. The examination of the venire has not proceeded very far, but it shows that interest in the Steuermann murder is, by natural process, disqualifying many Boise citizens for jury service in the case, and indicates that the publicity given to examination of talesmen has widely increased popular knowledge as to the means of artificially avoiding jury service.

When the 60 men of the second special venire presented themselves Judge Wood said that he would accept only those excuses which clearly came within the statute, and when he made good his announcement the band of petitioners melted very quickly. Five petitions were flatly denied, nine were temporarily denied, and six were granted. The other thirty did not bother to present their excuses.

COREY SHOWS THE WAY

Marriage Influenced Action of General Assembly Committee.

Columbus, O., May 24.—The Presbyterian general assembly approved the report of the special committee on marriage and divorce and adopted resolutions expressing the hope of more radical reform, reaffirming utterances of former assemblies regarding divorce and enjoining presbyteries to "enforce the standards of the church, to hold to a strict account all ministers under their care, and to urge all ministers to regard the community that should refrain from giving the sanction of our church to members of another church, whose marriage is in violation of the laws of the church, when communion they have chosen."

The Rev. Dr. Charles A. Dickey of Philadelphia, chairman of the committee, presented the report. Referring to the recent marriage of President Corey of the Steel Corporation, he said:

"What we had read about Mr. Corey cleared the way. The condemnation of public opinion was nothing in itself to make us rejoice; but surely if the editorials of our newspapers and if the approval of public opinion is creating a high standard, it is time for us to take the lead in this as in everything and give an example of the church cleansing itself from lax divorces and sinful marriages."

The report of the board of church erection was also adopted. Although it was rumored that an attempt would be made for the reconsideration of the action on the Anti-Saloon league no such step was taken. It is not improbable, however, that the controversy may be renewed to-day when the report of the permanent committee on temperance is offered.

MINERS CALL ON STUART

Ask Him to Sign Bills for Benefit of Workmen.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 24.—A committee of United Mine Workers called upon Gov. Stuart to ask that he sign the various bills passed by the last legislature advocated by the anthracite miners and the employers' liability bill. The party was introduced by Representative Garner of Schuylkill county, who had charge of this legislation in the house, and included District President John Fahey.

The governor has fixed next Wednesday for a hearing on the soldiers' pension bill. Old soldiers from all over the state will be here to urge the approval of the bill, which carries an appropriation of nearly $6,000,000. The veterans will ask that the amount be reduced to $2,000,000 in order that it may not be necessary for the governor to cut the appropriations for various other purposes if he shall decide to approve this bill.

Reading Tries to Get Even.

Philadelphia, May 24.—The Philadelphia & Reading Railway Co. has announced an increase in fare on its suburban lines out of this city. The increase in some instances is as high as 40 per cent. During the passage through the legislature of the two-cent fare bill, which has become a law, the railroad of the state threatened to increase their suburban rates. The increase in rates announced to-day, it was reported, was the direct result of the two-cent fare legislation, but this was denied by the Reading officials, who declare the increase was merely a readjustment of rates to create a uniform system.

Chinese Famine Broken.

Washington, May 24.—The Red Cross has formally announced that it will no longer receive contributions of money or provisions for the relief of the Chinese famine sufferers, the famine having been broken by the ripening of the crops.

payment of debt under the Act of Assembly, but the Auditors may, if they so desire, place the estimated value of borough property to the audit as a footnote, although it will not affect the audit. The report was accepted and the attention of the Auditors will be called to this matter with the suggestion that they place the value of borough property on the audit. Huston suggested that a vote of thanks be extended to the Auditors for their efficient work.

"We have that here in the shape of three bills for $35 each," remarked President Porter. "However, that can come up when the bills are paid."

The bills weren't mentioned again during the meeting. Borough Solicitor Brown stated to Council that he has found that the borough cannot float a bond issue to take care of the floating debt unless it is submitted to a vote of the people. The issue would have to be for $90,000 or $100,000 to clear up the floating debt. The availability of the borough's assets is so very doubtful that it is questionable whether a court would approve of a bond issue unless it had been submitted to a popular vote.

Rev. Huston inquired about the $4,000 due on the 104 duplicate. He was informed that the Title & Trust Company, as holder of S. Watt Strawn, has taken charge of this. It was due in June, 1906. The Finance Committee was directed to look this matter up.

The Street Committee came in for a load of work. Complaints were made of bad places on Arch, Sycamore and South Pittsburgh streets. Chair Sullivan stated that the grade on Tenth street is bad and should be changed. If the borough doesn't want a lot of damage suits, it is several feet too low, he said.

Solicitor Brown was asked about the Tenth street viewers. He said he hadn't gone ahead with it for the reason that the borough hasn't enough money to pay the damages if the viewers made. He was directed to go ahead and have the viewers appointed, and if the damages assessed are too high Council won't open the street.

The Street Committee was directed to investigate East Peach street and have steps erected there for the benefit of school children attending the Third Ward school building if necessary.

L. F. Ruth and Daniel Wilhelm were directed to lay sidewalks on Crawford avenue and John D. Frisbee and Michael Hurley to do the same on Main street. If this work is not started within 15 days the Chairman of the Street Committee is directed to advertise for bids and the work will be done by the borough at the expense of the property owners. If the work is started by the property owners it must be completed within 30 days.

The release from damages for the grading of Balsey alley was placed on file. It is signed by Andrew Haas, Jacob Brickman and H. A. Glotzky, all the property owners. The ordinance authorizing the paving and grading of Arch street from Apple street to North Alley was passed unanimously.

Burgess Scisson's veto of the ordinance repealing the ordinance to widen Meadow alley was read, and without comment. His veto of the ordinance authorizing the paving of East Cedar avenue was read, and without comment. His veto of the ordinance authorizing the paving of Washington avenue and Race street, and the ordinance authorizing the paving of Cedar avenue, were also read, and without comment.

A communication from John Duggan of the Merchants' Association inviting all members of Council to attend the free bridge mass meeting at the Carnegie Free Library Friday evening, May 31, was filed without comment.

A communication was read from the Combination Ladder Company stating that the matter of 300 feet of hose shipped back because of being defective is being given consideration.

Three candidates were nominated to succeed John H. Detemple as a policeman. They were S. D. Workman of Vanderbilt, S. H. Fulton and John A. Lowe. After considerable bargaining over the matter a secret ballot was taken. Lowe got eight votes and the others none. Rev. Huston and John Dunn acted as tellers.

The Police Committee was authorized to purchase helmets for the policemen, a hat for the Chief, for summer wear, and other supplies needed for the department.

The Light & Water Committee was given power to act, after investigation, into the request for an arc light under the Youghiogheny bridge. The present incandescent lamp is woefully insufficient to light the dark corners there. Councilman William McCormick called Council's attention to the fact that an arc light had been authorized at the corner of Elgin street and Murphy avenue, in front of his house.

"I don't want the light, even if I do live in the darkest hole in town, but I just want to let you know the light has been authorized."

The offer of the Carnegie Land Company of a site for a post house in Connelville township was accepted and the Burgess, President of Council and Clerk authorized to sign the article of agreement.

Councilman Dean stated that W. L. Kelly of Scotland is willing to erect a garbage furnace for Connelville if Council will give assurance of passing a protecting ordinance. Councilman Girard wanted to know why a local concern should be given an opportunity to do the same thing. The matter was referred to the Committee of Public Grounds and Buildings.

Charles E. Bishop requested that a light be placed at Snyder street, beyond the cemetery, near the borough line. This was referred to the Light and Water Committee. Council then adjourned.

POWER PLANT

To Be Erected by the Bessemer Coke Company at Ifield.

The Bessemer Coke Company is preparing to erect a large electric power house at its Ifield plant in that neighborhood. The Griffin and Martin plants and the one at Millsboro, across the Youghiogheny river, where they are preparing to erect another coke plant. The power plant will be modern in every way and will not only furnish the power for the operation of the coke plants but will also propel the large washer at Ifield.

It is probable that the company may erect several more coke plants in Washington and Greene counties and with these there will be considerable saving in the furnishing of power generated at its own power house. The power plant will be constructed during the summer.

CHAPTER XXII.

THE stockade smoldered in the midst of a black baked plain that was as brown as shoe leather and as devoid of any sort or kind of vegetation, as though it were shaved every morning with some monstrous razor. Trees there were in the distance, marking more than half the skyline, as though the place had been shaved especially for the stockade, but not a solitary bush was within reach. And the sight of the trees, whose leaves they never heard and whose shade they never felt, was one more torment to those of the eighty prisoners who still lifted their heads to look so far. The majority, however, let their dull eyes reddon by the day together on those few hard and blinding yards which might chance to occupy their picks and shovels from 6 in the morning till the going down of the sun.

All day they labored in chains beneath the barrels and bayonets of the military. In the evening when they returned to the stockade loaded muskets and fixed bayonets shined them the way. Even in the stockade itself fixed bayonets and loaded muskets gave them their supper. Thereafter they were locked up for the night in so many small boxes lined with ledges something more spacious than bookshelves. On these ledges they lay down, as close as mummies in catacombs, until it should be 5 o'clock once more, and perhaps after a time the only sound would be the clank of his fetters as this man or that turned over in the magnificent space of eighteen inches that was allotted to each.

It was the same stockade of which Ericsson had seen the outside on his way to Castle Sullivan in the early part of December. He saw the inside by the end of February when Strachan gave him six months of it for absconding and by so doing made open enemies of the Sullivan. They wanted to have the breaking of Tom's spirit all to themselves and tried to dictate another fifty lashes and the convict's return to service, but this time Strachan was firm, passing, indeed, the most merciful sentence possible in the circumstances.

The six months began on Wednesday, the last of February, in the year 1838. First they took his name and made an inventory of his marks, scars and the color of his eyes and hair. Then they cropped the latter and shaved off the yellow scabbie which had lately hidden the hollow cheeks and softened the bagged jaw, and it was an old man's face that saw itself with sunken eyes in the barbed wire.

Next they took away his farm laborer's clothes, which were not branded, and put him in a Farranatta frock and trousers, which were. And now they clasped around his body a green hide belt, from which depended in front a heavy chain that became two heavy chains at about the level of the knees, and the two chains ended in still heavier rings around either ankle, and the whole made a capital X upside down. In this harness it was impossible to walk, though with painful waddling, and it was never struck off for a single instant on any pretext whatsoever.

They now presented him with a spoon all to himself. His knife and fork, his penknife and his mess lid he was to share with five other felons. Lastly they showed him his eighteen inches, where he passed the intolerable night in wondering why he had not given himself up as the Italian's understanding and in wondering even more why he still would not do so if it were all to come over again, for he knew he would not. Indeed, one of the most dreadful features of this present phase was the tenacity with which the poor wretch found himself clinging to life in each emergency despite all his cooler longings for the end. He longed for that more than ever, but he saw now that death must come to him. He might sink to murder; to self murder he could never stoop.

Or he thought at the beginning of this term of broiling days and fetid nights, with foul company and heavy cross common to both. Meanwhile such feelings as were left him were still tolerably keen, and it was a real thrill that toward the end of the first week he woke up at his work to hear the others hooting and turned round to see Nat Sullivan once more riding down the line.

The thrill became a shiver. The blue eyes were fixed on Tom, the great lip was thrust out at him, and before Tom the rider reined up.

"You villain!" said Mr. Nat, with inexpressible malignancy of voice and look. "You villain—I've found you out!"

had done and been found out in, this cub whose teeth were always showing, but whose voice was never heard?

A perspiring sentry stroiled up, his once red swallowtail coat hanging open upon his naked chest and his white trousers sticking to his legs. He was the only one whose curiosity went the length of a word.

"What's he been doing?" said the sentry, waiting his hand on his chest to cool his musket stock. "We've only 'ad 'im 'ere these three days."

"You won't have him any more," said Sullivan. "The hangman will have him."

"Yes?"

"Yes. Look at him trembling."

"I see."

"He'll tremble in the air before long."

"Tom bent over his pick. There was more to coming here, but whether at himself or at his enemy Tom neither knew nor cared. He wished to appear very busy and regardless. He was really intent upon Nat's shadow under his pick, wondering whether he could possibly spring so far forward in his chains and get such a swing as to bury the pick in the substance instead. But this was never known. When the hooting subsided, the noise of light wheels approaching took its place, and Nat Sullivan turned round in his saddle.

The military man who debated himself by the charge of this iron gang was a major of gunners, too fat for service and too gouty to sustain his distended body on his legs. He therefore superintended operations from a bath chair, in which a bluejacketed messman had to trail him about the works. Major Honeybone had recognized Nat and had ordered the messman to hurry to the spot, but not to seem in a hurry. The major was himself a sufficiently hard and cantankerous man, but some sense of justice he had, and he considered Castle Sullivan one of the angriest plague spots in a plague spotted land. The present occasion filled him, therefore, with the greatest glee. He had long desired an opportunity of giving one or other of the Sullivan a piece of his mind, and here was young Sullivan trespassing on the works.

"Go slower," said the major, making up his mind what to say and not to say it all at once, as Mr. Nat turned in his

and to say it elsewhere."

"No, Mr. Here?" cried Major Honeybone. "Here or nowhere, which you please. This man absconds one night, so I gather, and the next night you are attacked by bushy men. This man is found the morning after that, and I understand you suggest he was one of the band that attacked you. Yet you never recommended him at the time. Come, now, did more of you?"

"Not then, but he threatened my sister and a female whom we have since returned and Miss Sullivan remembers hearing him call the female by her name. Now, this man and that woman kept company," said Nat. "In a secret dance of rage and spite," said Miss Sullivan, "will you be called the woman by her name. He fell in with the thieves when he absconded. It's perfectly clear. He was the very man to join them in an attack on his own masters even if he didn't instigate it. Join in it he did. I can prove it. Though not one of the original gang is left alive, I can prove it."

"What about that Italian fellow?" interrupted the major, and Tom held his breath.

Independence for the American Cigar Smoker

That's What

The American Cigar Company Stands For

You can't be an independent smoker as long as you depend on somebody else to select your cigars for you.

You must know what you want and get it.
The "Triangle A" means freedom.

It means better cigars of every grade than the best made under old conditions.

It's the Identification Mark of Cigar Quality

Do you realize that you have always bought cigars without any reliable guide as to quality, value or condition? The question is: How can you know you are getting the best cigar for your money?

You can be sure before you buy. Wherever you buy, whatever price you pay, whatever your taste, you will find the best cigar for your money in boxes bearing the "Triangle A" mark of merit

—no matter what the brand name. This "A" (Triangle A) mark identifies the product of recently perfected processes of fermenting and blending extensively applied on scientific principles in the American Cigar Company's immense specially-constructed stemmeries—exclusive methods beyond the knowledge or facilities of ordinary manufacturers.

The New CREMO

Every box is now extra-wrapped in glassine paper, sealed at each end with the "Triangle A" in red. The cigars are kept clean, fresh and in perfect smoking condition until the box is opened.

"You heard of the outrage the other night at Castle Sullivan?" began Mr. Nat.

"By bushy men?" observed Major Honeybone.

"By bushy men? Only one of them escaped, and there he is!" roared Nat, pointing savagely at Tom.

"Really?" remarked the major, willfully unmoved. "Dear me! It was from you he came here—like half my gang—for absconding. I understood!"

"We didn't know it then."

"What about that Italian fellow?" interrupted the major, and Tom held his breath.

"By bushy men?" observed Major Honeybone.

"By bushy men? Only one of them escaped, and there he is!" roared Nat, pointing savagely at Tom.

"Really?" remarked the major, willfully unmoved. "Dear me! It was from you he came here—like half my gang—for absconding. I understood!"

"We didn't know it then."
